

Welcome!

Thank you for applying with the Clarence Campeau Development Fund (CCDF) and Saskatchewan Métis Economic Development Corporation (SMEDCO).

We appreciate the opportunity to learn more about your business and explore how we can support your goals.

If you have any questions about the application, or need help completing any of the forms, please contact us at 306.657.4870 or toll-free at 1.888.657.4870. Our team is here to help every step of the way.

Step 1: Complete Your Forms

Please ensure that all sections of the forms are completed in full. These documents give us the details we need to begin evaluating your project and understanding your business opportunity.

Important:

If there is more than one business owner applying, each owner must complete their own Personal Financial Statement. This information is required to properly assess eligibility for funding.

If you need assistance, don't hesitate to call us at 306.657.4870 or 1.888.657.4870. We're happy to walk you through any part of the process.

Step 2: Save Your Completed Forms

Once all fields are filled out, save the documents for your personal records.

Step 3: Submit Your Application

When you're ready, send your completed forms by email, fax, mail, or drop them off in person at one of our two offices.

DEFINITIONS:

Funding Application: used to explain your business idea, how the money will be used, and how you will repay the financing, so CCDF/ SMEDCO or another lender can decide whether to fund your business.

Sole Proprietorship: owned by one individual, where there is no legal separation between the business and the owner. The financial activity of the business is reported on the individual's personal tax return, and all assets, liabilities, sales tax accounts, bank accounts, and other business accounts are registered directly to the human entity.

Partnership: owned by two or more individuals, where there is no legal separation between the business and the owners. The financial activity of the business is split between the owners and reported on their personal tax returns. The assets, liabilities, sales tax accounts, bank accounts, and other business accounts are registered directly to the human entities.

Corporation: a separate legal entity from the human entities, where the owners are registered shareholders in the business. The financial activity of the business is reported on a corporate (T2) tax return which is separate from the personal tax returns of the shareholders. The assets, liabilities, sales tax accounts, bank accounts, and other business accounts are registered to the corporation directly, and not to the shareholders.

%of Ownership: ownership interest in a business entity.

Personal Net Worth Statement: A one-page snapshot of your finances. It shows what you own (cash, home, car, investments) and what you owe (mortgages, loans, credit cards). Your net worth is calculated by subtracting what you owe from what you own. It is used to prove your financial position when applying for loans, financing, or guarantees.

Métis Citizenship Card: is an official ID proving you belong to the Métis Nation-Saskatchewan confirming you meet their criteria (self-identify, distinct from other Aboriginal groups, historic ancestry, accepted by the Nation) to access programs, rights, and services, and serves as proof of Métis Nation identity, distinct from Indian Status.

Métis-Citizen: is a person who is entitled to be registered as a citizen of the Métis Nation – Saskatchewan.

Métis-owned Corporation: is a corporation where greater than or equal to 50% of the voting shares are owned by a Métis person.

Cash Flow: is the movement of money into and out of your business; it's the cycle of cash inflows and outflows that determines the solvency of your business.

Security: Something a lender can take as collateral if you do not repay a loan. For example, a lender may place a mortgage on your building as security for a loan.

Maturity Date: The date by which a business loan must be fully repaid, including any interest and fees.

Promissory Note/Contribution Agreement: is a contract detailing the terms of a promise by one party to pay a sum of money to the other party. The obligation may arise from the repayment of a loan or from another form of debt. For example, in the sale of a business, the purchase price might be a combinations of an immediate cash payment and one or more promissory notes for the balance. The terms of a note typically include the principal amount, the interest rate if any, and the maturity date.

General Security Agreements ("GSA"): is a legal contract used in lending transactions where the borrower pledges collateral to secure a loan. The GSA outlines the terms and conditions under which collateral is provided as security, including details on the collateral, the rights and responsibilities of the borrower and lender, and procedures in the event of default.

Personal Property Security Act ("PPSA") / Personal Property Register ("PPR"): is a legal framework established in Canada to govern the creation and enforcement of security interest in personal property, to provide a unified system for security interest property, thereby facilitating lending transactions and protecting the rights of lenders. Under the PPSA, a lender can register their security interest in the personal property of a borrower, giving them priority over other lenders in case of default or bankruptcy.

Liens: are a form of security interest granted over an item of property to secure the payment of a debt or performance of some other obligation.
